CCSS Scholarships

Know a high school student or Delta College student who needs a scholarship? A scholarship program administered by CCSS, which includes up to ten merit-based awards, are given to graduating high school seniors and a San Joaquin Delta student each year. Students must be of Chinese descent, write an essay, submit a grade transcript and letters of recommendation along with a completed application to be eligible for any of the awards. Scholarship information is available beginning from counselors at each local high school within the San Joaquin County. Awards will be presented at the CCSS annual Spring Banquet in April.

THANK YOU!!
TO ALL OF OUR
CCSS MEMBERS WHO CONTRIBUTED FOOD!

On Thursday, December 19, 2013, President Colleen Lee and her husband, Gordon, had the pleasure of delivering all the canned food donations collected at the CCSS Christmas party that was held on December 8, 2013 to the Emergency Food Bank in Stockton. Attendees generously donated all the food shown. Tim Ulmer (center), a member of the Food Bank board, was there to receive our contributions with great gratitude!

Membership Dues

If you haven't renewed your dues for 2014, now is the time! Use the application below. Thank you for renewing or becoming a CCSS Member!

Congratulations to Dr. Henry and Mrs. Sylvia Wong, long time CCSS members, where a cancer center was named after them. The naming ceremony was held on November 15, 2013.
