Dear New and Returning Vendor Participants,

The Chinese Cultural Society of Stockton (CCSS) will be celebrating Lunar Year 4717, Year of the PIG on Sunday, March 3, 2019. It will be our 41st anniversary of celebrating the new lunar year. We invite you to join us and participate in our Chinese New Year Celebration (CNYC) at the Stockton Civic Memorial Auditorium. Doors will open at 10:30 a.m. and close at 5 p.m.

This single-day, FREE family-friendly spectacular celebration, is the largest of its scope in the San Joaquin Valley. An associated Parade will begin at 10:00 a.m. and end at approximately 11:30 a.m. depending on the number of parade participants. Members of the community and their guests who come to the parade can continue their day at the Stockton Civic Auditorium and enjoy all things Chinese--great food, entertainment, increased children's activities, and browse vendor booths for souvenirs, books, and arts and crafts until 5:00 p.m.

Artists and vendors whose products are associated with Chinese culture are especially invited. Information regarding costs and other requirements are provided in the enclosed application form and vendor information sheets. To reserve a space and to be included as a participating vendor in our Program Brochure, please complete and submit the application form and the booth fee by Friday, January 11, 2019. Booth space will be assigned in the order applications and payments are received. For more information about the Celebration, visit our website at www.stocktoncnyc.org

If you have any concerns or need further information, please feel free to contact the Vendor Coordinator by email. vendorcoordinator@stockonccss.org
